Inland Receives Best Workplace in the Americas 2019 Award

Inland named Best Workplace for 5th straight year by Printing Industries of America

La Crosse, Wis. – Inland, a 3rd generation family owned packaging and label printing company, has been announced a winner of the Best Workplace in the Americas (BWA) award for the fifth year in a row. The award is given by the Printing Industries of America to recognize the efforts companies put in to making their workplaces exceptional.

The annual Best Workplace in the Americas designation demonstrates the commitment and investment companies make to its employees and work environment. Inland was recognized by a panel of respected Human Resource professionals for their dedication and efforts in categories like communication and culture, employee resources and benefits, and safety and work environment. Receiving the BWA award demonstrates the significant commitment that Inland has made to its employees.

Michael Makin, president and CEO of Printing Industries of America, states “Companies recognized in the Best Workplace in the Americas program exhibit the highest commitment to success in many ways, but particularly through their employees. Congratulations to Inland.”

“Winning this award for five years is a great testament to the dedication and commitment we have made to ensure Inland is a safe and welcoming environment for our employees,” Mike Skroch, Vice President of Human Resources at Inland.
